

News from SALEM COUNTY

Office of Public Information

Mr. Robin B. Weinstein, Public Information Officer Office Phone: (856) 935-7510 ext. 8202

After Hours: (856) 297-5433

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: March 9, 2010

FREEHOLDER DAVID LINDENMUTH RECEIVES HONOR AWARD

(SALEM, NJ)—Deputy Freeholder Director David Lindenmuth today announced that he is the recipient of the Drum Major for Justice honor from his alma mater, West Chester University. The honor was bestowed upon him at the University's annual brunch celebrating the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on January 21, 2010.

"I am humbled to receive this distinction from my alma mater," said Deputy Director Lindenmuth. "It is an honor to serve the people of Salem County as a Freeholder. I am committed to pursuing justice for all residents regardless of race, class, or gender. Dr. King showed this nation that great things can happen when we work for the common good through perseverance and sacrifice."

Lindenmuth was recognized for his work in the community, along with two other alumni from West Chester University.

Lindenmuth is a resident of Woodstown serving his second term as Freeholder. He also serves as the Deputy Director of the Board and chair of the Public Safety/Shared Services Committee. He is currently the Superintendent of Oldmans Township School.